Psalms 8:3-4

When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place, what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them?

CONSERVATION

Hunting is so much more than just the kill, it is the memories made. From preparation, hard work, long days, and short nights, to the stories around the campfires. It is the pursuit of wild animals that have adapted to avoid predators with senses much higher than our own. We constantly try to outsmart such animals with many attempts ending in failure. It is in our blood, passed down for generations. It is an instinctual drive deep in our souls that ignites a passion that few truly understand.

We as hunters have an appreciation and respect for these wild animals and the environments we explore - An appreciation that most individuals cannot fathom. Hunters work in remote areas away from their families for long periods of time. This work contributes to far more than just the hunting of animals. The funds generated by hunting is what preserves a large amount of Africa's wildlife areas and protects the animals that call it home. Hunting generates funds for anti-poaching efforts, creates jobs in hard-to-reach places, and it provides food for the local communities.

From hunting we experience the highest of highs and the lowest of lows. It is a way of life for many of us, a passion that far exceeds a hobby or some holiday activity. An obsession for some, and contrary to popular belief...hunting is conservation.

ULTIMATE SAFARI EXPERIENCE

We are committed to provide you, our client, with the most unforgettable African experience. Our professional hunters are skilled, ethical sportsmen who will ensure that you look back on your safari, and the manner in which each trophy was taken, with pride.

To us, not only the trophy but the entire experience is paramount. Our areas are regarded as the finest hunting blocks in Southern Africa, but the emphasis is placed on the thrill of the chase. On your return home, we want the memories of sight, sound, people, smells and the atmosphere of Africa to haunt you until you return. Hunting plays a major role in our conservation efforts in Africa.

To this end the manner in which we hunt, the old animals we select as trophies and the ethical, professional image we portray as hunters will ensure hunting always remains critical to conservation. We will do our utmost to select old, top-quality trophy specimens for you, which will be hunted in fair chase. To do this, you will be required to, at times, walk a fair distance, endure heat, thirst and cold, and after all this make a good clean shot. It is essential you practice with your firearms prior to your arrival in Africa. Go ahead, use the bench at your shooting range to sight in your rifle, but also practice sitting, prone and offhand shots.

Mission Madubula is a non-profit branch of Madubula Safaris that was formulated to honor and serve those who have served us.

The founder and owner of Madubula, John Abraham, served in the South African military during the Border War on a small reconnaissance team. As a result, he has a great understanding and respect for those who have taken on a similar path.

At Mission Madubula we raise money every year for special operations soldiers who have been wounded in battle and take a few of these individuals on a fully paid for African safari – this includes flights, accommodation, trophy fees, taxidermy etc. We have teamed up with Kevin Holland (former DEVGRU and Special Missions Unit Operator) and Harry Bologna (former DEVGRU Operator) so that we may achieve this mission to the best of our abilities and for it to be done the right way. Both men have accompanied us on successful Mission Madubula safaris.

The aim is to take these individuals on a hunt of a lifetime, to work hard, and hopefully take home some amazing trophies. Our main goal, however; is to give back in some way to the brave men and women who have served their country at the highest level.

This mission would not be possible if it weren't for the generous donations received every year and we would like to thank all of you who have helped make this a reality. If you would like to contribute to the cause please head over to www.madubula.com or reach out to lauri@madubula.com for more information.

Thank you to all those who have served.
